Subject: U.S. District Court Case No.2:16-cv-05301-ES-JAD
Plaintiff's Response to Defendants' Latest Oppositions

To The United States District Court,

My current filing is on the enclosed thumb drive. The purpose of this letter is to explain the reason for, and thank the Court for reviewing, the thousands of pages that cover my case (the Plaintiff). The enclosed filing not only my response to the defendants' latest filings, it is also to confirm that my case filings are understood and in perspective.

This is a massive case that covers:

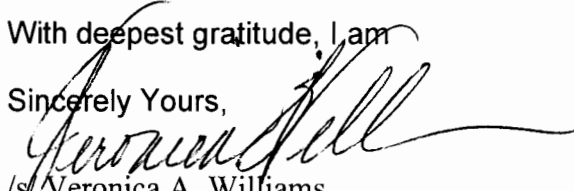

- The period from 2005 – 2018 and ongoing
- More than 5 financial institutions
- The State of New Jersey, Title firms, notaries, other people and other entities
- At least 6 law firms
- A Far-reaching Geography: United States from CA to NY via TX, FL, GA; the United Kingdom, southern Ireland, Belgium, India and possibly more

I, the Plaintiff, have prepared virtually all of the strategy and filings for my complaints. I have paid multiple law firms to help in my cases. My case has been self-financed and I have performed at least 90% of all related tasks. I did this through 6 stress induced surgeries, 3 non-surgical hospitalizations, 77 months of physical therapy and more than 36 months of recovery. It has been quite a challenge to monitor research and document such massive fraud. Expanding my legal education to perform 13 years of legal work has been a herculean task. I thank the Court for reviewing such a monumental case. This document highlights core information and references key filings from the over 4,000 pages filed. Again, this response has been prepared to help others to understand my case.

While this document does not cover all of the illegal actions and all parties involved, it does focus on those that caused me irreparable harm. It also exposes entities, people and processes that have hurt me and so many others.

With deepest gratitude, I am

Sincerely Yours,

/s/ Veronica A. Williams
